1. When you were a kid, what did you always want to be when you grew up?
When in Elementary School, I wanted to be a teacher; by High School I was bitten by the Wall Street Bug

2. If you won the lottery, what would you do with the money?
Hire an attorney, protect myself long-term and help family

3. Who is your hero? (a parent, celebrity, an influential person)
Who among us would not say their Mother is not their hero?

4. What is your favorite vacation spot?
I have traveled extensively in the US and abroad, but a favorite spot is South Florida, Miami to Palm Beach

5. What is your biggest pet peeve?
When folks disagree with me and keep that opinion to themselves. I want everyone to be open and honest

6. Share a fun fact about yourself/hidden talent:
My neighbor in the 1970's was Shirley Ball she was involved in a Bank Robbery and later was portrayed in the Al Pacino film, "Dog Day Afternoon". I can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear in most situations

7. If you could bring back one celebrity/entertainer/actor from the dead who would it be?
Bette Davis -- she would love living in this decade and being unedited

8. What time period would you travel back/forward to?
I'd travel back to 9/6/52 in St. Anthony's Church on Sullivan Street in NYC and watch my parents get married

9. If someone made a movie about your life, who would they cast to play you?
Since I am always mistaken for him it would have to be Ryan Gosling

10. Tell us about your pet(s)!
Three cats Soho (past) currently Sullivan and Thompson. I chose these names as a theme, as my family came from Soho, my father grew up on Thompson Street, my mom Sullivan
